Report of the Grand Jury to his Honor Judge Reeves.

The Affairs of the County.

MEMPHIS, February 23, 1869. To His Honor George W. Reeves, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Shelby and

We, the Grand Jurors for the January term, 1869, beg leave to make the following report, in obedience to the charge,

COUNTY POOR HOUSE. On the 10th day of the present month the Grand Jurors visited the county poor-house, otherwise called the county hospital, which is situated in the south-ern suburbs of the city, on a command-ing elevation some half a mile from the Ef you dont think I am sorrie for the past-Nex time I wont pass but cum in and lay my heart at your fete-In penders the past of the penders o past—Nex time I wont pass but cum in large two-story brick structure, with and lay my heart at your fete—In pennin this I but the Dick Tate uv my heart other cheap frame buildings, economically constructed; and the whole, in large two-story brick structure, with other cheap frame buildings, economically constructed; and the whole, in ROADS. cinding reveral acres of ground, enclosed, with an ordinary board fence.

There were about six'y inmates-the recipients of charity-pretty equally di-vided in fourteen or fifteen rooms or wards, nearly half of whom were white, and most of these were females. Some four or five were laboring under a get a ten-dollar bill, and no questions mild form of small-pox. A large proportion were sfilleted with rheumatism. Two were insane, Henry Balkins and Among the passengers that came Mrs. Dalton. One or two were blind, while others appeared to be the emacia-ted or jects of poverty only.

On inspection of the various wards, both within and without the main building, we found many badly ventilated and he bedding often filthy, scant and destitute of pillows; more particularly was of which were colored, many of whom citterly complained for sufficient cover-ing from the cold, and for fire.

We found the premises apparently under the superintendency of the doc-tor and the steward, both pleasant and courteous young gentlemen, who keep the books in a tusiness like manner. Besides these the only other employees, not eleemosynary, were a man cook and a colored maid-of-all-work. The storeroom appeared well stocked with wholesome breadstuffs for immediate use, and the fresh beef in the kitchen was of a good, fat quality, forty pounds of which were received per day at twelve cents per pound, as we were informed by the

Upon the whole, we did not see such a variety of those delicacles essential to the convalescence of the sick, nor was chase a courthouse for the county as unthere a sufficiency of fires in the wards

By a cursory estimation the present expenses of the establishment do not, perhaps, exceed six or seven hundred dollars per month including the rental of the premises. > The Grand Jury have made extensive roads and pikes of the county, and of the mands for safety; for the further neglect in placing proper mile posts by the way, and signboards at the forks as well as warning boards at the railroad crossing. The chartered roads or turnpikes are especially complained of as being in wretched condition, often endangering the traveler. The plank road to Big Creek, the Hernando and Horn Lake roads across Nonconnah bottoms, are particularly referred to. The latter, that is the Horn Lak road, we are informed, has been abandoned by the incorpo-rators, still they are entitled, by the terms of their charler, two years for its completion. The citizens are, therefore, loth to put it in proper condition, lest the company should then step in and charge toll; we would for this reason recommend the revocation of their charter at once by the compe tent authority, on this Horn Lake road.

> The new jail is the only property in the city owned by the county. The places occupied by county officials and the Courte are under a lease for the term of six years, at an aggregate annual rental of $10,500. We regard, therefore, wise, at less until the leases are about

The scademy property, whose charters have been abandoned by trustees, revert to the county. O' this kind of property we have no positive data for further information.
